MORE GRAVESIDE FLOWERS STOLEN

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@tindlenews.co.uk

POLICE in Honiton say they will continue to monitor activities at St Michael's Churchyard after more flowers were stolen from gravesides.

As previously reported, a spate of thefts took place at the graveyard at the end of 2009.

Officers have continued to monitor the situation but have so far drawn a blank.

Speaking to Pulman's View, PC Ian Atyeo, of Honiton police, said: "Flowers have been stolen from the cemetery again and this is an issue that we have been looking into for a while. I think we have had between half a dozen and a dozen incidents."

"In the past we have had high visibility patrols in the area and we are always trying to think of ways to prevent the thefts. One suggestion was to place a camera up there. Having a camera could be a good idea but on balance, and rightly so in my opinion, it was decided that this shouldn't happen. You have to have a balance because you don't want to be intruding."

The neighbourhood beat manager for Honiton added that at present police did not know who was committing the offence.

He said: "There was a break in the number of thefts but now there seems to be a recurrence. We have no idea who it is at the minute. It could be young people but I would have my doubts because the site is relatively out of town. It could be a relative that has lost someone and for whatever reason they are taking the flowers."

"Enquiries are ongoing and we are up at the graveyard quite often to keep an eye on things."

PC Atyeo was asked if he thought it could be a deer or some other sort of animal that was responsible for the thefts.

He replied by saying: "There is nothing to suggest that it is an animal. They would leave footprints and other marks. I would suggest it is somebody."

Police in Honiton are appealing for information about any suspicious vehicle movements in the vicinity of the graveyard.

Anyone with information about the stolen flowers should contact Honiton police on 08452 777 444.

Town crime still falling

CRIME in Honiton has continued to fall according to figures released by Honiton police.

The total number of incidents recorded in the town between Monday, June 14th, and Monday, July 12th, stands at 63.

In 2009 a total of 71 incidents took place during the same period.

PC Ian Atyeo, of Honiton police, said: "It has been a reasonably quiet time for us. The schools break up for summer soon and we will be out and about conducting high visibility patrols. A small minority of youngsters will get into mischief and we want the summer holidays to pass without incident."

A30 blocked

FIRE crews from Honiton, Ottery St Mary and Sidmouth were called to reports of an accident on the A30 between Daisymount and Exeter Airport on Saturday, July 10th.

The incident took place just before 8pm and involved an overturned car and caravan.

Two lanes of the carriageway were blocked. Crews made the scene safe. No injuries were reported.

School's fire

FIREFIGHTERS from Ottery St Mary were called to reports of a cooker fire at the King's School on Thursday, July 1st.

The incident took place just after 10.30am and involved a small cooker in the kitchen area of the school.

Crews made the area safe and ensured the kitchen was well ventilated.

Local author's fictional book hits the shelves

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indienews.co.uk

WEST Hill-based author Philip Algar's new book, set in the fictional village of Woodfield Magna, has hit the shelves.

Mr Algar said: "It is intended to be a humorous novel about a small village and its efforts to overcome a large company's attempts to change the character of Woodfield Magna."

"Incidentally, I wrote it long before the possible development of part of West Hill and other parts of east Devon."

The story is told through some of the leading villagers, including an agnostic vicar, a doctor whose hobby is erotic topiary (shrubs clipped or trimmed into decorative shapes), the president of the local cricket club and a manager in a large company, frustrated by the inadequacies of big business and his marriage.

Aspects of village life, including the Woodfield pub, the local newspaper and its odd stories, and the cricket team which, unknowingly, could influence the village's future, are all part of the plot.

Mr Algar has written five previous books. For many years, as a freelance editor and writer, he contributed regularly to UK and overseas publications on energy, economics and crisis management.

He also wrote a regular and humorous column on business topics, for a national newspaper and for a business magazine, but is now concentrating on writing books.

One of his previous books, Goodbye Old Chap, tells the story of his merchant navy captain father's life at sea - which included a long spell as a prisoner of war in Germany.

Mr Algar visited Ottery Library earlier this year to chat with readers about the book and sign copies.

The royalties from that book were given to the Red Cross because the organisation's food parcels kept his father and other POWs alive during their incarceration in Germany.

College head's first year

THE head of Honiton Community College has given an update about his first year in the college.

Glenn Smith was appointed at the start of the last academic year — September 2009 — and he says that his first year has been a whirlwind.

Speaking during the recent Honiton Town Council meeting on Monday, July 12th, Mr Smith said: "I want to thank councillors for taking an interest in what goes on at the college and engaging with us to find out what we are doing and for getting involved."

"Honiton Community College is a good school but I want it to be an excellent school. I am proud to say I think we have made real progress in my first year, we have done a lot and we have come a long way."

Village chosen for sport pilot

FENITON has been chosen by Leisure East Devon (LED) and Active Devon for a pilot scheme encouraging residents to become more active through sport and leisure.

LED sports development officer Mike Anderton said: "We will be offering residents a range of free and low cost activities and encourage you to have your say."

"I need to get a sense of what activities you would like to see in Feniton. Our aim is to meet the needs of your whole community, involving all ages and abilities."

Those wishing to put their ideas forward can contact him on 01297 35235 or e-mail manderton@ledleisure.co.uk

LED is a charitable trust which manages East Devon District Council's leisure facilities under a 30-year lease.

Honoured citizens

THREE residents of Honiton have been honoured by the town council.

Steve Parsons, Alan Rowe and Colin Wright are now honoured citizens of the town and a presentation was made to all three during the most recent Honiton Town Council meeting held on Monday, July 12th.

Mr Parsons has spent over 15 years raising money for the Exeter Leukaemia Fund.

Mr Rowe has spent 35 years raising money and supporting many charities throughout Honiton and the surrounding area. He is also the founder of the Baton project, a charity aimed at raising awareness of the work carried out by the British armed forces.

Mr Wright was described as an unsung hero and has been involved with the Honiton and District Chamber of Commerce and Industry, is a trustee and director of the Honiton Tourist Information Centre and has also been involved with the Millennium Green project.

After the presentation town mayor Peter Fleming said: "It is an honour to give all three of you these awards and it is a privilege to share the town with you."

Mindless act of vandalism

AN Axminster policeman has called the vandalism of an ambulance service car "a despicable act of mindless vandalism".

PC Kevin Bennett said the persons responsible should be ashamed of themselves and added: "Their stupidity could have cost lives."

A fast response car belonging to the ambulance service was vandalised when parked at Axminster Hospital overnight between Tuesday, July 13th and Wednesday, July 14th.

Damage was caused to the rear window and the vehicle could not be used until it had been repaired.

Anyone who may have witnessed something suspicious in relation to this incident is asked to call 08452 777 444 and ask for Axminster police.

The crime reference is KA/10/386.

Appeal for stolen bike

POLICE in Honiton are appealing for witnesses and information after a bicycle was stolen from Throgmorton playing field in Dukeswell.

The incident took place sometime on Wednesday evening (July 7th).

The boys bike is described as black in colour with red graphics, it has a distinctive long seat and a broken bell on the handlebar.

Anyone with information should contact Honiton police on 08452 777 444 quoting crime number KH/10/520.

A warning from police

POLICE have asked members of the public to exercise caution if someone knocks on their door asking for a cup of tea.

That is exactly what happened on June 26th in Uplyme.

It appears that no crime was committed, but police are keen for people to be aware of the incident.

A man, said to be in his 50s, knocked on the door of an elderly lady's house, asking for a cup of tea.

He was allowed inside and given a cup of tea. As he enjoyed his cuppa, he allegedly asked the lady personal questions.

A police spokesman said: "He left without incident, but police would like to tell people to be aware of letting strangers in."

New device

POLICE teams across rural east Devon are using a new device to crack down on underage drinking.

The device is called an Alcoblow and can detect alcohol both in people and in liquids.

A spokesman for Devon and Cornwall Police said: "Our aim is to reduce anti-social behavior caused by underage drinking in hotspots throughout the area. It's [the Alcoblow] already proved a success in other areas across Devon."

Chip pan fire

FIREFIGHTERS from Honiton were called to reports of a chip pan fire on Saturday, July 17th.

The incident took place just after 10am at a property in the King Street area of the town. The fire was out as the crew arrived and the cause of the fire was believed to be accidental.

Residents to choose new play equipment

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

AXMINSTER residents have been invited to choose equipment for a play area at Millway Rise.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) is holding a play event on Tuesday, July 27th, and residents will have the opportunity to choose the new play area.

The event will be held on The Square behind the Spar Shop on the Millway Rise estate between 2.30pm and 6.30pm.

A spokesman for EDDC said: "As well as voting for which of the designs they want, children will have the chance to have their faces painted, learn some circus skills and play giant games with their families."

"Since spring 2008, a group of local residents have been working with EDDC officers to design the new play area. Between March and May this year, officers also worked with 59 children at the three schools in Axminster to find out how they prefer to play. They found out that swinging, spinning, balancing and climbing were the most popular activities.

"All the ideas were gathered together and sent to several play companies, who were asked to put forward suggestions as to how they would fulfill the children's and residents wishes and it's these designs that Axminster residents are being asked to vote for on July 27th.

"Half the funding for the new scheme is being provided by developers as part of their Section 106 contribution, resulting from new developments in and around the town. The other half has been provided by a grant from the government's playbuilders scheme, which is managed by Devon County Council."

Council determined over complex plans

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

HONITON Town Council says it is determined to push forward with the plans for the Beehive Community Complex on Dowell Street.

The issue was discussed during a town council meeting held on Monday, July 12th.

As previously reported in this newspaper, a town poll took place on Thursday, June 24th.

The results of the poll show that 662 people voted against the plans for the community complex with 257 voting for it.

The results also showed that only 10 percent of the voting electorate turned out.

During the town council meeting Syd Taylor, of Bhutan Close, said: "Thursday, June 24th, proved an important day in the life of Honiton people and their successors.

"The town poll executed by East Devon District Council asked the question 'Do you wish for Honiton Town Council to proceed with the community complex?'."

"Just over 900 people voted of which 662 people voted against that question whilst 257 voted for.

"Will the council therefore recognise the importance of the foregoing exercise of local democracy by abandoning its quest to construct the community centre on the car park adjacent to Dowell Street?"

Ken Sherman, the man who initially called for the town poll, was left frustrated because he couldn't ask an additional question of the town council during the meeting.

Mr Sherman had submitted a question before the meeting but wanted to quiz councillors further.

When his request was denied he sat down in frustration and left the meeting early adding: "I now know exactly where I stand."

Michael Teare, chair of Honiton planning committee, said the town council has always consulted on the

◆ THE site of the proposed community complex in Honiton. Inset, an artist's impression of the proposed Beehive Community Complex project, and that it will continue to do so.

Peter Halse, town and district councillor for Honiton, added: "There are always people against everything. If we are united in what we want to do then we should proceed."

A planning application is expected to be submitted in the near future and councillors have said that they will continue to consult residents in the town.

Charity fears of debt worries for residents over 55

A DEBT charity is concerned about debt problems among those over the age of 55 in Devon.

Consumer Credit Counselling Service (CCCS) says that a higher than average proportion of the people in Devon who are going insolvent are over the age of 55.

CCCS points to Insolvency Service figures which show that 16.5 per cent of those who went bankrupt in Devon last year were over 55 compared to only 15.1 percent nationally.

The charity has launched a subsidiary company, CCCS Equity Release, to provide free equity release advice to people with debt problems.

Tom Moloney, manager at CCCS

Equity Release, says: "Debt problems are very stressful at any age but particularly hard to deal with at a time of your life when you would have expected to be more settled financially.

"I would urge anyone in Devon who is worried about their debts to seek help from a debt charity as soon as possible because the earlier you seek help the more can be done to help you."

The free-phone helpline can be called on 0800 138 1111 from 8am to 8pm, Monday to Friday.

CCCS also operates an online counselling service available anytime at www.cccs.co.uk.

A referral to the free CCCS Equity Release advice service is available through both.

EDDC's coffee mornings to discuss housing needs

EAST Devon District Council officials are inviting residents to attend coffee morning-style events to discuss housing needs.

Events will take place across east Devon. Millwey Rise Community Centre, Axminster, will play host to an event today (Tuesday, July 20th) from 3pm.

District council officials will also be holding an event at the Seaton Methodist Complex from 6pm on Monday, July 26th, and at the Kings Centre, Lees Building, Honiton, from 6pm on Tuesday, July 27th.

An EDDC spokesman said: "This is an exciting initiative that will ensure tenants have significant input into the housing services they receive from us. It will give them confidence that we will be tackling the issues that are of particular importance to them."

Crowds for pennies day

CROWDS are expected to flock to Honiton today, Tuesday, July 20th, for the annual Hot Pennies celebration.

Honiton Hot Pennies dates back to the 13th century, when the town was granted a Royal Charter, and marks the start of Fair Week. The ceremony remained unbroken for several hundred years and has always taken place on the first Tuesday after July 19th.

Proceedings begin at 12noon at the Old Pannier Market, with the town crier, Dave Retter, and town mayor, Peter Fleming, hoisting up a garlanded pole with a gloved hand at the top.

Pennies will then be thrown from the Old Pannier Market and then a procession makes its way up the High Street with pennies being thrown from various pubs along the route.

Pulman's View will be in attendance during the celebrations. For more see next week's edition.

No excuses

POLICE in Honiton say they are aware of the litter problem in the town.

The issue was raised during the Honiton Town Council meeting on Monday, July 12th.

PC Ian Atyeo, of Honiton police, said: "It is a problem and we are aware of it. If we see someone dropping litter, we deal with it. We would ask everybody, if they see something and only if they feel comfortable, to challenge those responsible."

"Sometimes people just need a nudge in the right direction and there are lots of bins in town so there is no excuse."

More members needed for German twinning project

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indlenews.co.uk

TWO German towns have expressed interest in a twinning arrangement with Seaton.

Seaton and District Twinning Association stalwart and chairman, Jeff Day, is keen on the idea but stresses that new blood is needed before any expansion can happen.

He said: "Heimbuchenthal and Weiler Stadt have made tentative enquiries about a twinning arrangement but we are unable to proceed until there is sufficient commitment from more people here."

The Devon town's twinning association is in rude health, boasting about 60 members.

But someone with a special interest in Germany needs to come forward if Seaton is to have a second twin.

Seaton became a French twin in 1982 when a charter was signed with Thury-Harcourt, Normandy.

Thury-Harcourt has a German twin (Heimbuchenthal) and the French town's association has one lead member for the German side of things, one for the English side plus another person in a role overseeing both.

Mr Day said: "If enough people became involved, I don't see why we couldn't do the same thing here."

"Any further enlargement would require people interested in Germany."

"I'm fully booked up with the French side, so would need someone to do the German side."

Whilst the membership number is very healthy, the association would be happy to welcome new faces of all ages.

Mr Day says it has been difficult to get younger people and families involved of late.

He explained: "We are essentially retired people. We do take families and children on occasions, but we do have a problem raising interest among young people."

"Younger people would bring a breath of fresh air and younger people or organisations for younger people would benefit from the experience."

The good news is that there has been some promising signs recently.

Interest has been expressed by a kayaking club and a cycling club in Seaton to become involved and work with clubs sharing the same interests in Thury-Harcourt.

Seaton's relationship with its French twin is so good that Mr Day earlier this year was honoured for his contribution to international friendship by Thury-Harcourt.

An award that came shortly after he was made Seaton's Citizen of the Year for his heavy involvement with the twinning association.

Mr Day said he was extremely surprised and delighted to be chosen for the awards.

About the twinning concept in general, he said: "Too often people have the idea that twinning is a perk of civic administration, a jaunt for our civic leaders."

"In Seaton this is most certainly not the case.

"We are a self-funding organisation which presents an opportunity for any individual or organisation to have an international experience where their opinions and pre-conceived ideas can be, and most certainly always are, turned on their heads."

"We have had a relationship with the citizens of Thury-Harcourt since 1982."

"It is a lovely little town of some

2,000 people nestling in the Orne Valley."

"All the people of Seaton should be aware that they and their town are highly thought of by so many in Thury-Harcourt — they have even named a street in honour of Seaton."

"After years of involvement I can only recommend the twinning experience, not just as a means of discovering more about the people of another country but — most importantly — more about ourselves."

"Vive la difference." Anyone interested in finding out more about the Germany co-ordinating role, membership or any other aspect of the twinning association can call the secretary, Glyn Roberts, on 01297 21363.

Councillor will resist closure of court at all costs

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@hindlenews.co.uk

A DEVON county councillor has said she will be resisting the closure of Honiton Magistrates' Court at all costs.

Sara Randall Johnson, county councillor for Honiton St Michael's ward, was speaking to members of Honiton Town Council during their most recent meeting on Monday, July 12th.

As previously reported in this newspaper, government ministers have announced proposals to improve the use of courts throughout England and Wales.

As part of the proposals, ministers are asking for views on whether to close 103 magistrates' and 54 county courts that they claim are underused - and the Honiton court is on the list.

Mrs Randall Johnson said: "I am resisting the closure of Honiton Magistrates' Court at all costs. It is a very valuable asset locally and if it goes everyone who needs to use a magistrates' court will have to go to Exeter. And then what happens if Exeter magistrates' closes? People will then have to travel to Bristol.

"The court in Honiton is very well situated to serve large parts of east Devon because it has such good transport links."

She also urged members of the public and councillors to look at the consultation papers and say 'no' to the possible closure of Honiton Magistrates' Court.

Consultation papers are currently available online at www.justice.gov.uk/consultations/consultations.htm.

The closing date for replies is Wednesday, September 15th.

Police bid for Facebook users to apply

POLICE across Devon are urging Facebook users to add a new application to their homepage to make them safer online.

The UK's national law enforcement agency dedicated to child protection — the Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre (CEOP) — has joined forces with Facebook to develop the initiative.

The application will give Facebook users across Devon direct access to CEOP's advice and reporting centre.

New vicar for town church found at last

REVEREND John Streeting has been appointed team rector of Axminster Team Ministry and will move into the rectory at some point later this year.

Prebendary John Good left the Axminster team in April 2009 and the complex process to replace him is now almost complete.

A statement issued by Rev Judith Roberts, associate priest, said he has been appointed subject to statutory formalities.

Reverend Roberts said: "We look forward to John and his wife Elizabeth joining us later this year, when we will hold a special service of welcome at the Minster.

"John is presently working in Sheerness and Queenborough in the Diocese of Canterbury and, in addition to his gifts as a pastor, he is an accomplished musician.

"We are very much looking forward to welcoming him and Elizabeth, and are sure that they will make a very special contribution to the town and village communities as well as to the churches."

Farmers invited to environmental stewardship event

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

FARMERS from across east Devon are being invited to attend an Environmental Stewardship event in Honiton next Tuesday, July 27th.

The event will give those attending the opportunity to hear more about the Natural England Entry Level Stewardship (ELS) and Organic Entry Level Stewardship (OELS) schemes.

ELS is a whole farm, points-based scheme open to all farmers to enable them to deliver management that benefits wildlife, landscape, historic sites, water and soil. It is a voluntary scheme and applicants can choose from a wide range of options covering all farming types.

ELS agreements run for five years with a guaranteed annual payment of £30 per hectare. Farmers with land that is either fully organic or in conversion to organic farming methods can register for the OELS. It offers a payment of £60 per hectare every six months for five years.

Richard Lambeth, Natural England land management advisor for Devon, said: "The day will be a great opportunity for those currently in classic and entry level schemes that have expiring agreements as well as those considering entering into schemes for the first time.

"We aim to help individuals identify the most suitable options that fit around their current farming operations whilst at the same time increasing benefits to the farm environments."

To book a place at next Tuesdays workshop contact ISS Farm Events on 0300 060 1659 quoting reference SWME699. Alternatively email farmevents@naturalengland.org.uk stating your name, address, phone number, farm size and type and holding number.

Two sessions are available on the day starting at 10.30am and 2pm. Natural England advisers will be on hand to answer questions and offer a step-by-step guide to help farmers through the application process.

Businesses asked to join-up

POLICE in Honiton have been speaking to business owners at Industrial Estates in Offwell.

Over a number of days officers from the town attended various locations within Offwell. During the event business owners were encouraged to sign up to a community messaging scheme and register key holder contact details.

A spokesman for Honiton police said: "In order to raise awareness of crimes on the industrial estates within the parish and to offer help and advice the rural neighbourhood team from Honiton spent a morning visiting businesses.

"We spoke about the recent crimes and how businesses could help to prevent themselves from becoming victims with some simple improvements to their daily activities or improved security measures.

"Devon and Cornwall Police's community messaging scheme was explained and many businesses joined up.

"Another useful way that we can help businesses is by them registering key holder details with us. This enables us to contact someone at the time should we find or be informed about an issue with their premises.

"The visits were a great success with 15 businesses now visited and many signing up for business watch messages and registering key holder details with Devon and Cornwall Police."

A new class for carnival

AXMINSTER Carnival organisers have announced a new class for the big day on September 18th.

There is no age limit for the group, but it has been introduced as an attempt to attract youngsters.

A spokesperson for Axminster Carnival said: "We would love to get the young people of Axminster and surrounding towns to join in the fun.

"We thought we would introduce a new class this year that we hope will be relatively easy to construct, although it can be extremely effective — Decorated Umbrellas.

"We hope this will appeal to all age groups and we hope the weather will be good and you won't need it to protect you from the rain.

"Carnivals should be all about having fun either by taking part or watching. There is such a lot of doom and despondency around at the moment so let us have a carnival to remember and cheer us all up."

Entry forms are available from Geoff Enticott on 01297 32147.

Town hosts annual show

COLYTON'S annual Summer Show is set to take place this weekend.

The event is organised by Colyton Guides and Friends Group and all funds raised will go towards Colyton Carnival.

The show will be held at Colyton Town Hall on Saturday, July 24th from 2.15pm.

Raffle, refreshments and a tombola will all be available.

Admission costs 50p for adults and 20p for children.

Stepping into new job with shoe bid

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@findlenews.co.uk

STEPPING into Bay Tree Shoe Repairs in Ottery St Mary is like stepping back in time.

The shop is full of old buffing machines and stitching machines and customers could be forgiven for thinking they have walked into a museum.

Martin Farrant, of Honiton, took on the Mill Street-based business back in February after work for his stained glass business dried up and he has not looked back and is continuing to expand. He has even developed a website in an effort to bring the business into the 21st century.

Speaking to Pulman's View he said: "I went to the job centre because I knew there is currently no future in stained glass. I asked if I could be retrained and I was told to sign on for six months and then I might be able to get some help.

"I didn't want to sign on. I want to work, I think the system is the wrong way round."

Mr Farrant said he put a letter in a local newspaper in an attempt to convince someone to take him on.

He said: "The letter basically said that I was ready and willing to work. I am 50 now and I want a career, not just a job. I thought the letter might help me get an interview."

His plan of action worked and the letter was spotted by Colin and Theresa Davey, the former managers of The Bay Tree Cafe and Bay Tree Shoe Repairs.

"Colin and Theresa contacted me and said they might have an opportunity for me. Colin was in this shop for 20 years and he is basically Mr Ottery. Before he retired he let the business out to someone else.

"I am glad Colin was still willing to give me an opportunity though. He has become my mentor and has trained me in shoe repairs and has passed his knowledge onto me," said Martin.

Since taking on the business Martin says he has completely revamped the shop and has added other services.

He said: "I am the only shoe shop in the town and this gives me a great opportunity.

"I am now doing watch and clock repairs, a watch battery fitting service, key cutting, duvet laundry, engraving and a dry cleaning service.

"I say to people that I can do all those little jobs. I am absolutely loving it here and I just want to thank the people of Ottery for their continued support and for welcoming me to the town."

Community didn't vote

EDITOR — Objectors to the Honiton Community Centre project voted — in dribbles rather than droves — against a significant enhancement of the town's self-sufficiency and vibrancy.

Only a pathetic 10 per cent turnout, they represent just one-in-fourteen of the electorate, not the community as a whole.

However, enough about them.

I should like instead to applaud the 257 over 18s who voted in favour of progress on the community centre. They looked to the future.

The future of, amongst others, the under 18s — who of course couldn't vote — and the generations yet to be born.

Recent bike festival should be celebrated

EDITOR — As a sometimes resident of Seaton I must say how much I enjoyed all facets of the recent Festival of Cycling.

A great big thanks to all those who helped arrange it.

As an original member of the Axe Valley Pedallers (AVP), I was very pleased to ride the first few miles with the Great Tour — see www.thegreattour.org.

Thank you to the whole town for such a wonderful send-off.

Subsequently I have ridden with them again in Norfolk and very much enjoyed the experience. I was not the only AVP rider here. Alistair Cope has done a magnificent job organising the cyclists and publicising Seaton all around our marvellous coastline.

The AVP are putting Seaton, and the Axe Valley, on the map all around the country.

I feel cycling is one brilliant way to promote Seaton and it also fits with our aspirations to be a green-thinking town.

In 2003 I was on the Coast to Coast, now Stop-Line, Trail Blazing ride along Sustrans route 33 from Weston-Super-Mare to Seaton.

As far as I know the plan is still to incorporate a cycle terminus for this amazing ride into the Seaton Visitor Centre scheme, and I so much hope this will happen for it will enormously boost the towns image and its appeal for cyclists and walkers.

Cycling is very much part of the Low Carbon Lifestyle trend and I feel this is where Seaton's future lies, together with its local business, arts and crafts and our very special, uniquely important local Naure Reserves.

If we continue to build on what we are already good at so much more will follow — including the benefits of a thriving green tourist industry.

It is fantastic that the Great Tour cyclists will return to Seaton on carnival day — Saturday, September 4th.

Two riders have come all the way from Australia to do this inaugural event. I really hope there will be a tremendous welcome back to the town for the cyclists at the end of their achievement and journey around the whole UK coastline.

I do not know if there are any plans for this but how about there being a great town gathering or picnic in the Cliff Field, which the cyclists can join in with on their return, before we all progress to the Esplanade for cheering and music?

Think what a fantastic start this would be for the carnival occasion itself.

David Kelf, Norfolk

Problem of seagulls is only mans

EDITOR — I write to defend the seagulls in Seaton.

Over the years, with the demise of the fishing industry, the seagull has had to change from a sea and cliff living bird to a town and scraps bird. Man has made it do so to survive.

It is a gracious looking bird of nature, and yes, I have a pet seagull, it flies wild and it comes to me for food from my hand.

It does not squawk at me because I tap its beak if it does and it's been doing so for nearly 10 years.

Its chicks this year are lovely too.

I believe it's man's lack of respect for nature at the seaside that has made the seagull a problem.

But alas of all the training, I still can't stop him messing on my car. All I can say is thank goodness cows can't fly.

*Chris Byrne-Jones
Seaton*

Thanks for skydive cash

EDITOR — We would like to thank everyone who supported my daughter Moira who did a skydive to raise funds for Exeter Leukaemia Fund.

Although she does not like heights she went ahead with the jump and to date has raised £700.

In this time of recession we are so grateful to all those who gave so generously.

HONITON HEARING CENTRE

Looking after people's hearing healthcare since 1999

Honiton Hearing ticks all the right boxes

Buy with Confidence" scheme applies to local Southwest hearing aid company.

In response to concerns about 'rogue traders' a partnership of Local Authority Trading Standards Services have taken a ground breaking step by putting together the "Buy with Confidence" scheme. The scheme provides consumers with a list of local businesses that have undergone a series of detailed checks before being approved as a member of the scheme.

The Honiton Hearing Centre, headed up by Colin Eaton and his wife Samantha, has been providing a service to those hard of hearing since 2003 and are well established within the Honiton high-street community. As an independent qualified Hearing Aid Audiologist, Colin is able to advise and recommend on a comprehensive range of hearing systems to suit a variety of hearing disabilities and prices.

In order to become a member of the "Buy with Confidence" scheme, Honiton Hearing first had to be recommended and then pass regulated checks. Membership is not given lightly as amongst other checks, applicants have their complaints history reviewed and have visits and inspections from Trading Standards Officers. Good references from past customers, agreeing to abide by the schemes code of conduct whilst following the letter of the law are all requirements too. Conduct continues to be monitored once the business has been granted membership.

Colin adds "At Honiton Hearing we have always been honest and truthful with our advice to customers and this has built our reputation as a reliable, friendly, family-run business. We always provide independent advice that is not misleading and our pricing policy is transparent. We are delighted to be part of this scheme as it fits in totally with our company ethos of serving our customers honestly".

Damselflies show the mating wheel

EACH month the Wetlands Watch brings readers an exclusive wildlife photograph from the Axe Estuary Wetlands.

Two azure damselflies are pictured here entwined in their mating wheel, with the bright blue male holding the pale green female firmly behind the head with his abdomen.

This prompts the female to stretch her abdomen up towards the male, completing the wheel and allowing the pair to fly in tandem with a poetically heart-shaped silhouette. The female will lay eggs into pond weed while the male holds on, ensuring that other males do not sneak in and fertilise her eggs. Life around ponds in the summer is a competitive and dangerous place. Damselflies and dragonflies can be seen in profusion on the Axe Estuary wetlands throughout the summer, but warm sunny mornings in June and July are particularly fruitful times to look for them.

The Axe Estuary Wetlands Project is working to protect and enhance the wildlife and landscape of the estuary, as well as providing people with access to enjoy this very special place.

◆ FIRE crews investigate a barn fire on the outskirts of Ottery St Mary

A BARN blaze in Ottery St Mary was started deliberately according to fire investigators.

As previously reported in this newspaper, the fire broke out at Barrack Farm in the evening of Wednesday, July 7th.

Initial reports suggested that the blaze could have been caused by hay stored at the barn overheating.

However, a spokesman for the Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service said: "The fire service investigator has come back to us and has confirmed that a deliberate fire was the most likely cause."

Fire officers say this time of year is the peak time for barn fires and are warning farmers to be vigilant.

The spokesman added: "As harvest time approaches Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service is urging farmers to ensure that they only store dry hay in a bid to cut the number of barn fires."

"The peak season for barn fires is late summer and early autumn (July to October) which coincides with the period just after haymaking."

"Barn fires are very resource heavy for the fire service and if preventable are diverting manpower and equipment from other incidents. They also cause a great deal of pollution with run off to nearby rivers or streams and smoke being released into the atmosphere."

"Deliberate fires can be a problem for farms due to their isolated nature. It is a fact that farms along main roads are targeted more frequently. To help reduce these arson attacks farmers are advised to make sure gates are secure and locked at night, ask neighbours to be vigilant and consider installing CCTV or burglar alarms to vulnerable areas of the farm."

In the editor's shoes

Austin catches every moment

WELL, as you will notice from my name, I am now a happily married woman. The deed was done, and I am now officially the wife of a farmer.

Those of you who read this column whilst I was away — an amazing three weeks out of the office — will have read the lovely report my sub-editor, Lucie, wrote about our wedding day.

We had a fabulous day and were exceptionally lucky with the weather as the reception was in a marquee on my new in-laws' farm.

I had purchased some snazzy pink 'townie' Wellies in anticipation of rain on the day but, luckily, I didn't need them. The farming fraternity would surely have raised their eyes towards heaven at me, my new husband certainly would have, but it never came to that.

The day went smoothly with only the odd small hiccup — including my dress breaking in the morning — but, in all, it was very relaxing and chilled out.

Of course, there are always a few creases to iron out and the occasional small calamity, but that's to be expected.

The thing is, when your wedding photographer is a professional press photographer, the calamities are sure to have been caught on camera.

We were extremely spoiled to have Lyme Regis-based photographer Richard Austin — famed for his Animal Magic books and TV programmes as well as his high profile newspaper pictures which go all over the world — capturing (every) moment of our day.

The photos he took were utterly amazing. He has a real talent and knows his craft — the real techniques of photography — so well, meaning he doesn't just record the day, he captures the special moments and can see things that will work through the lens that most would never think of. On top of all that, of course, he's always ready when something unexpected happens as you can see from this picture, below.

My Lovely Husband's best man, Vince Foxwell, of Uplyme, arranged for the two of them to travel to the village church by tandem bicycle — courtesy of Soanes Cycles in Colyton. The groom — along with everyone else — knew nothing of this addition to the morning's itinerary until the last minute.

The two of them, dressed up to the nines in their morning suits, looked a sight cycling to the church on their bicycle-made-for-two, attracting all sorts of attention and some strange looks I am told.

On approach to the church, however, the 'driver' lost control and almost smashed into a parked car on the roadside. And you can guess who was there ready to catch the moment. Mr Austin was poised of course and you can see the result.

I don't think this picture will make world news but I thought it was well worth a giggle for our readers.

the churches

With Nigel Speller

WITH fine summer weather in our part of Devon we have a feast of music and associated events to look forward to.

We start with Axminster, where the Minster Church, despite the work in progress is looking ahead, to its regular Thursday concerts at 12.30pm every week. The Lunchtime Concerts, which are free, continue and are followed by lunch for which donations are requested. The concert programme for next month has just been announced and on August 5th there will be a piano recital, and the following week there is a jazz programme.

A little west at Colyton, there is a Flower Festival at St Andrew's Church in late July which includes a concert each day, on 29th, 30th and 31st at 7.30pm. On Thursday there is a harp recital, on Friday Frederik Gest and his Tango Quartet from Holland, and on Saturday it is local talent under the title Fiddles, Flowers, and Fishes. Tickets are available from Brainwave Colyton at £6, with children free, or an inclusive festival cost of £15.

The Flower Festival itself at Colyton is open on weekdays from July 29th at 10am and on Sunday from 11am, with free admission. Refreshments are available every day until 4pm. On Sunday evening at 6.30pm there is a Service of Thanksgiving and Dedication of the restored West Window by Bishop Bob of Crediton, which is open to all. Much of the cost of this work was generously funded by the Friends of St Andrew's, membership of which is open to everyone. The 28th annual meeting was in Colyton Church on July 15th at 7.30pm.

For those who prefer organ music, the summer recitals at Exeter Cathedral begin on July 28th and continue to August 25th. Start time is 8pm and admission at the door £7, under 16s £3.50.

It is no secret that the parish churches at Axminster and Colyton are currently without a vicar since their predecessors moved on to Dorset and Exeter respectively. The Church of England process for new appointments involves public advertisements followed by applications and calling candidates to local interviews by representatives of the parishes. Interviews for the vacancies at both places took place a few days ago and the vacancy at Axminster will be filled in about three months by a priest from Kent. A selection was made for Colyton but sadly the priest concerned felt unable to accept for family reasons. At Colyton the whole process will start again after the summer holiday season.

I have observed in this column before that the ministers and officers of church buildings which have official recognition as A Listed Place of Worship are able to claim back 100 per cent of VAT incurred on repairs and maintenance work to buildings, including fees and repair work to fixtures such as bells and organs. The scheme was introduced in April 2001 and is due to end by March 31st 2011.

So far over £107million has been repaid to churches. So this concession has saved churches from having to raise enormous funds to maintain the buildings and they could be very sorely pressed if the concession was withdrawn.

It is suggested that local MPs should be contacted about the situation, and a specimen letter is available on the following website — www.churchescare.co.uk/news.php Other useful sites are at www.lpwsscheme.org.uk and www.savetherefund.info.

Rev Linda Chester, Methodist Minister, offers some serious thoughts.

She said: "Some mornings when I wake up, my usual view of the hills is obscured by a sea mist. Any visitor wouldn't realise there were beautiful rolling hills at all. Last week I visited the Surrey estate of Wintershall, near Guildford, for the 12th annual presentation of The Life of Christ. The whole performance is set in the glorious grounds, with a cast of around 200. During the performance the audience moves, with the cast, to five different sites as the life and teaching unfolds.

"The story is narrated first by the Gospel writer Luke and then by the disciple John. It was particularly poignant to watch the children joyfully running towards Jesus in an open country setting, instead of a film or theatre production.

"Wintershall can accommodate two to three thousand people each day and, when I was there, nearly 1,000 children and young people from various schools were present.

"The life of Christ was unfolding in front of our eyes — it was as though the mists of time and culture had evaporated and we were actually present.

"As always, it was a very moving performance and it triggered much thought and conversation. One young man was heard to comment: 'I never realised it was real before.' For him, it was as though the sea mist had lifted."

Bishop Bob baptises parishioners in sea

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@lindlenews.co.uk

A SERVICE of baptism, renewal of vows and confirmation attracted more than 200 people to Monmouth Beach in Lyme Regis on Saturday, July 3rd.

The service was organised by the Church of St Peter and St Paul, Uplyme, but many people from other churches came along to offer support and to socialise at the subsequent barbecue.

The Bishop of Crediton, Bob Evens aka Bishop Bob, led the service with vicar Gavin Tyte.

A number of people were baptised in the sea — with ages ranging from 10 months old to 61 years — and several others renewed their baptism vows.

Those baptised were Lila Beau Churchill, Rowena Tyte, Adam Childs and Sylvie Mew.

When asked what made her go ahead, parishioner Sylvie said: "Because I was never baptised or Christened.

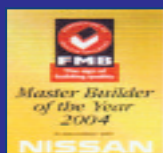

"I've become a Christian over the last two years and I had an overwhelming desire to be baptised. It was a wonderful experience."

Exciting times ahead for Axminster

The future for Axminster is looking up with Swans turning into a pizzeria, and the redevelopment of the George Hotel.

The new owners of the George are dedicated to restoring the George to its former glory and to re establish it as the hub of the community.

River Cottage stores and canteen has encouraged visitors to the town and Axminster has benefited from the national publicity.

There are a wealth of independent traders in the town offering a friendly and efficient service and who have the added benefit that no travelling or petrol costs are involved!

There is plenty to see and do in the town with a well equipped gym and sports centre offering many different classes, and a swimming pool. The town also has a thriving cricket and bowls club and two football clubs.

Art exhibitions can be found in the White Space Gallery in Milton's yard and the Art's Cafe and regular events are held at the Guildhall which is also available for functions.

The next event at the Guildhall is Axminster Drama Group's The Wizard of Oz on the 22nd - 24th July, tickets are available from Archway bookshop.

There is a country market every Thursday in South Street where there are delicious home made cakes, crafts and country fayre. There is a weekly street market in the town centre which boasts lots of fresh food from local farms and businesses.

A note from Axminster Chamber of Commerce

At the latest Chamber of Commerce Meeting there was an enthusiastic response surrounding the development of both Swans and The George Hotel. Both buildings have been, in the past, high profile businesses and it was agreed that new projects planned for these buildings can only benefit Axminster. The church which is under repair is also proof that Axminster is investing in the future and whilst our Minster is shrouded in metal it is actually a testament to the congregation and people of Axminster who have raised enough money to have the roof fixed.

It has always been an aspiration of the Chamber to see Axminster developed as a town that visitors can enjoy for a morning or afternoon, or indeed for the whole day. The longer opening hours for the tourist information centre, the development of a more frequent rail service and the retention of our collection of unique independent traders in Axminster are all key to this. The chamber is, by its very nature made up of local traders who have faith in the economy of Axminster and it's future and the meetings always have a very positive feel to them, more recently though this has grown in confidence.

As a tribute to the local spirit in Axminster, local traders in Lyme street are already watering the baskets on South Street Car park and they hope to extend this service to other hanging baskets in town. This is the sort of community spirit that has proved so powerful over the years in Axminster and will ensure the town's future.

Put on your Ruby Shoes

The Wizard of Oz is coming to Axminster very soon. Dorothy will be flying in from Kansas on Thurs 22, Fri 23 and Sat 24 July to The Guildhall, Axminster and you can join her on her trip around the Land of Oz, you can sing with the cute little munchkins, laugh with the scarecrow, cry with the tin-man and roar with the lion. And don't forget ladies to wear your ruby slippers.

Axminster Drama Club invites you to come and see this extravaganza and would like all ladies- young and old- to wear red shoes. There will even be a prize for everyone seen wearing red shoes to the show. Tickets can be purchased from Archway Bookshop (tel 01297 33595) prior to each show at reduced price of £8 for adults and £7 for under 16's and OAP's or only £25.00 for a family ticket.

Axminster Museum

Originally the Police Station and Court-house, the Museum is opposite St. Mary's Church in the centre of Axminster. Visitors may discover the old police cells which have now been incorporated into the Arts Cafe adjacent to the Museum.

The former court room houses the majority of the collection. A recent addition to this room is a model of Weycroft Mill a prominent landmark where the main road from Chard crosses the River Axe on the northern approaches to the town. There are three smaller rooms which have as their theme, Axminster carpets, agricultural and associated trades and a room set aside every year to feature some aspect of Victorian or Edwardian life.

Choir delights at 90th party

ON 21st June the president welcomed both members and visitors to the Honiton Afternoon Women's Institute meeting.

Among the topics discussed was the 90th Birthday celebration of the Devon Federation which was held at Exeter Cathedral on June 14th.

Six members who attended agreed that the ladies' choir was superb as was the amusing address given by the Bishop of Exeter.

Forthcoming trips include a trip on the Stuart Line Cruises to sail along the Jurassic Coast and an outing to Sherborne and Shaftesbury.

The speaker this month was Maureen Sabin a former magistrate in Liverpool for many years who gave a most interesting and inspiring talk which included how courts evolved.

This was sprinkled with amusing anecdotes which everyone enjoyed.

Calico garden

AT the July meeting of the West Country Embroiderers Thea Hope, who founded the group in Ottery, taught members to make calico gardens.

By manipulating pieces of calico to make rockery stones and plants and by adding embroidery to represent trees an aerial view of a garden was made. The group will finish their gardens on Monday, August 2nd.

The group meets at The Institute, Ottery St Mary, on the first Monday in the month from 10.30am to 3.30pm.

Anyone interested in joining the needlework group and would like more information please contact Pat Snelling on 01404 812651.

Rotarys join together to donate £2,000 to school

THE Rotary clubs of Axminster and Lyme Regis jointly presented cheques totaling £2,000 to The West Of England School For Young People With Little or No Sight.

The monies were recently raised at a golf day organised by the clubs.

Laura Sperring, fund raiser for the school, joined the clubs for lunch and thanked the members for their generous support.

The money will be going towards helping fund a wide range of disability equipment which is tailor-made for individual needs.

The residential school has 300 part and full time staff looking after 100 young people many of whom require one to one support.

Police dog training entertains

ALL Saints and District Women's Institute met for the last time before the summer break on Tuesday, July 6th.

Jim Jackson came with his daughter and dogs to talk about police dog training. Jim was in the West Yorkshire police for 30 years.

He started work as a dog handler first, then as a trainer, and finally as a breeder of police dogs. He has also spent many years working with sporting dogs, which has taken him all over the world.

Dogs make very good police assistants because of their very well-developed sense of smell.

The first dogs, in the 1900s were blood hounds, used for catching criminals; airedale terriers, used to protect policeman; and evolved after the wars, teaching the dogs tracking, used to pick up the most recent sign of human scent to catch a burglar, or to indicate a scent on an article which can help to find lost or hidden people, also to help keep public order.

Training starts very young, and can be quite intensive.

All in all the evening was really interesting, and served as a warning not to get into a position where a dog is needed to apprehend members.

The next meeting will be on September 7th in All Saints Village Hall, when David Guy will come to talk about Shelterboxes. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Cats problem to birds also

MY recent comment referring to the depredations of magpies where bird life is concerned has aroused the ire of a reader from Seaton, a Mr S Garner, who claims that I know perfectly well that these corvids are not the real reason for the decline in bird life, and that a major cause is the domestic cat.

Well, yes, Mr Garner, I am perfectly well aware that magpies are not the prime cause for the overall loss of song and farm birds, a factor which can largely be attributed to loss of habitat, sprays and pesticides, but further depredations amongst an already reduced and declining bird population, whether by magpies, sparrowhawks or cats, is to be deplored.

My correspondent claims that domestic cats kill tens of million of birds each year and, indeed, the figure put forward by the RSPB is that around 275million prey items are killed by cats, of which 55million are birds, and the remainder mostly small mammals.

However, it is, of course, not known how many birds are killed and not brought home so the total of birds slaughtered by cats may be very much higher than the figure quoted. There is some faint consolation in the fact that the majority of birds killed by cats are young, weakly or sick, and cat defenders will point out that most of the birds killed by domestic feline pets would have died anyway. Nevertheless, cats are a major problem in terms of bird slaughter, but there is no easy solution.

I do not keep a cat, and would never do so, having in the past witnessed the slaughter of bird life which can take place when determined hunters are on the prowl, but it is no fault of the feline, for the animal has an in-built hunting instinct which cannot be suppressed. However, Mr Garner may rest assured that my vendetta against magpies will not be replaced by cat hunting!

Now to matters more congenial. On August 14th a Green Fair will take place at The Hub Sensory Garden, Verwood, a wildlife garden created by the Dorset Wildlife Trust (DWT), adults from the Verwood Opportunity Centre and local school children. The garden, designed by Shelley Morris, is a spiral with sensory compartments, willow sculptures and a wild flower meadow. There are also water features, trellises and bat and hedgehog boxes. The idea is to show how one can learn about wildlife gardening and also, how to get involved with the DWT's new reserve, Bugden Meadow. The Green Fair is open from 10am to 3pm at The Hub Sensory Garden, Brock Way, Verwood. Call 01202 692033 for further details.

Meanwhile, I hear that Butterfly Conservation has now produced a Provisional Atlas of macro-moths (the big ones) for the UK, a result of the National Moth Recording Scheme. This will be published on line and in hard copy in August. The request to County Moth Recorders for records produced an astonishing 9.1million records, and also clearly signposted the decline of some species. However, there are still areas where records are patchy or non-existent, so it will be a long time before the map is complete. It does, however, help to understand the impact on moths by changes in agricultural practices and climate change.

It's not all loss, however, as a survey of the last century undertaken seven years ago revealed. Some 89 species of moth and butterfly became established, or re-established, whilst 66 species became extinct. Of these all but four — the Large Blue (successfully brought back), Mazarine Blue, Black-Veined White and Large Tortoiseshell — were moths. One piece of good news was that last year saw a massive invasion of Humming-bird Hawkmoths, with 14,829 records submitted by 10,451 people. The moth was seen widely across Britain, though it was scarce in the north. Will this summer prove to be another hummer year, I wonder?

Ladies celebrate another win at Axe Valley Show

MUSBURY and Whitford Women's Institute's July meeting was held in Whitford Village Hall.

The speaker was the charity, Greyhounds As Pets. They brought along some very beautiful greyhounds of assorted colours and sizes.

The whole of the greyhound rescue teams are run entirely by volunteers, who don't get paid a penny. It costs about £20,000, per month to run this charity, all by donations and giving talks.

They are a truly dedicated band who clearly love their dogs, and more importantly, the dogs love them.

They make very good pets because they have a gentle nature, and can be housetrained.

The dogs are not looked after very well, both before they start racing and after they are retired.

The vote of thanks was given by Brenda. The group won once again at the Axe Valley Show, and congratulations to the team for their hard work.

Birthday posies were given out and apologies taken. Eve was thanked for organising the trip to Greenway, which had been very good, and Jan played on Agathas piano.

It was lovely to see both Anne and Ngaire, who have both been quite poorly.

The free coffee morning takes place on Wednesday, August 11th at 10.30am, in Musbury Village Hall committee room, with a free soup and fruit lunch, followed by a planning meeting for next years programme.

At the end of the meeting members had a cream tea, and also devoured the christening cake which had been made for the Axe Vale Show.

The next meeting will be The Aging Eye, with Andre Laird, on Tuesday, September 14th at Whitford Village Hall at 7.30pm. As usual, visitors are most welcome.

Superbly modernised home with views

THIS superbly presented detached home is in an elevated position, near Axminster.

This property has been modernised to exacting standards. Offering far reaching rural views to the west, and with a large garden, this well positioned home offers easy access to Lyme Regis and the glorious nearby countryside. The accommodation includes 4/5 Bedrooms, lounge, dining room, fitted kitchen. The property has a potential building plot and could possibly be used to provide bed and breakfast accommodation.

Outside is a garage and well tended gardens.

The property has an asking price of £535,000. For more information contact Fox and Sons on 01297 32323.

A lettings gem!

SYMONDS and Sampson are proud to bring to the rental market, an immaculately presented three bedroom house, located on the edge of Axminster.

It is situated in a quiet location, only a short distance from Axminster town centre and benefits from gas central heating, two off road parking spaces and an enclosed garden.

A very well maintained and neutral interior runs throughout this house, including new carpets in parts.

On the ground floor there is an entrance hall, living room and a luxury fitted kitchen/diner, with a door to the enclosed garden. To the first floor, there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

This lovely house is available now, on an initial 6 month let, with a view to extend on a longer term, for only £660 per calendar month. Children and small pets are considered, regret no DSS or smokers.

For further details, or to view the property, please contact the Axminster Lettings Office on 01297 32879.

SEATON £295,000

A stunning and stylish reconstructed three bedroomed chalet bungalow located in the popular Boundary Park area. The property has had an exceptionally thorough and comprehensive make over which has included internal re-arrangement of the ground floor layout creating an exceptional kitchen/dining room and a master bedroom suite on the first floor. Quality materials have been utilised throughout the conversion and the whole property, including the landscaped gardens are exceptionally well presented throughout. In most respects this property represents a complete re-build apart from the external walls and the property features rewiring, replumbing, new kitchen and bathrooms together with internal doors and redecoration. Constructed with brick elevations under an interlocking tiled roof there is uPVC double glazing, fascias, soffits and gutters through and gas fired central heating. The accommodation includes entrance hall with ground floor cloakroom, superb kitchen/dining room with steps down to living room, study or ground floor bedroom 4. On the first floor are three bedrooms, master en suite and family bathroom. There is an integral single garage and on site parking for a number of vehicles and the front and rear gardens have been attractively landscaped. An internal inspection is highly recommended to appreciate the internal accommodation and the quality of the renovation programme.

HONITON AGRICULTURAL SHOW SET TO BE THE BEST YET

THE 120th Honiton Agricultural Show takes place on Thursday 5th August 2010.

The show received record livestock entries in 2009 and the visitors packed the cattle and sheep lines trying to get a glimpse of the magnificent animals being shown. Following the introduction of Alpacas last year the organisers reported a fantastic 94 exhibits.

The Grand Parade will take centre stage amongst the main ring activities where the day's prize winners will proudly parade giving the viewing public a wonderful opportunity to see the beautifully turned out exhibits.

The Main Ring is delighted to host for the first time the Bolddog "Lings" Freestyle Team, Honda's official and the UK's number 1 motorcycle display team.

Victor Pitts is a working sheep farmer in Devon and will bring his fantastic sheep dog, sheep and duck display to the main ring. Victor works with beautiful Border Collies showing their commitment and his pleasure of bringing traditional farming to life. Audience participation is encouraged giving the public a real taste of this fascinating profession.

Again Honiton will play host the West of England Hound Show a show within a show which forms a major part of the lower field's countryside activities.

The vintage tractors can also be found in this area where over 90 vehicles are on display. A new addition is the Blacksmiths Guild where ornate iron work is produced and competitions run throughout the day.

There is a wonderful poultry and dog show consisting of both Pedigree classes and companion fun classes for the family pet. With over 400 trade stands providing a diverse range of shopping to suit all including a Craft marquee and a Food Hall bursting with over forty exhibitors there really is something for everyone.

There are fantastic Food Courts to tempt your taste buds our largely locally sourced caterers can provide a wide choice of fayre a bacon roll to start the day or why not try a venison burger? When its time to stop and soak up the atmosphere of the day the award winning local brewers Otter Brewery from Luppitt will be on hand to provide that well deserved Pimms or a delicious local ale.

For music enthusiasts enjoy the Bandstand with the Honiton Band or the Ottery St Mary Silver Band or if Jazz is your taste enjoy the sounds of the Gittisham Hall Jazz Parade Band. Our next generation of farmers, The Young Farmers Clubs will be displaying their entries from flower arranging to cookery and arts and handicrafts and then head to the Main Ring to cheer them on in the highly competitive Tug of War final.

Experience the best of Devon, Honiton has a unique atmosphere it brings new and traditional agriculture together so make a note in your diary as the organisers look forward to welcoming you. Don't forget accompanied under 16's go free. Make savings and purchase advance admission tickets now.

The show is open for business at 8.00am and car parking is free. There is a free shuttle bus service starting at 9.00am from Lace Walk, High Street, Honiton. For further details on the show contact the secretary on 01404 41794 or visit the website www.honitonshow.co.uk.

Put on your ruby shoes Concerts in the West comes to Axminster

Dorothy played by Eleanor Waterhouse in her flying house

THE Wizard of Oz is coming to Axminster this weekend. Dorothy will be flying in from Kansas on Thursday 22nd, Friday 23rd and Saturday, July 24th to The Guildhall, Axminster and you can join her on her trip around the Land of Oz, you can sing with the cute little munchkins, laugh with the scarecrow, cry with the tinman and roar with the lion. And don't forget ladies to wear your ruby slippers.

Axminster Drama Club invites you to come and see this extravaganza and would like all ladies-young and old- to wear red shoes. There will even be a prize for everyone seen wearing red shoes to the show. Tickets can be purchased from Archway Bookshop (tel 01297 33595) prior to each show at reduced price of £8 for adults and £7 for under 16s and OAPs or only £25.00 for a family ticket.

"Concerts in the West" come to the Minster Church of St Mary the Virgin in Axminster on July 29th. These concerts are organized by Catherine Hodgson who is Director of the London Handel Festival.

She lives in Chard and runs the Handel Festival from her office in Ilminster. This concert is the seventh in this year's series, the previous concerts were in the Marine Theatre at Lyme Regis so it is a bit of a departure to bring them to Axminster and it is very much hoped that the people of Axminster will enjoy the experience.

The concert brings together two of the rising stars of the early music stage. Katherine Manley (Soprano) and Christopher Ainslie (Counter-tenor), they will be accompanied on the harpsichord by Erik Dipenaar.

Katherine is an up and coming soprano, her engagements in the last twelve months included the starring role of Dafne in Handel's Apollo e Dafne at the Wigmore Hall; Seleuce Tolomeo and Dalinda Ariodante for English Touring Opera; Messiah at Waterfront Hall, Belfast for the Ulster Orchestra; St Matthew Passion at Bath Abbey and Helena in the new production of A Midsummer Night's Dream for Garsington Opera. She is due to perform Lucia in The Rape of Lucretia for Angers/Nantes Opera.

Old "Concerts in the West" hands will remember the tenor, Nathan Vale, who sang with us three years ago, he and Katherine married last year. After performing with Concerts in the West Nathan went on very quickly to higher things, now if you google him there are over 20 pages of references! Katherine is not far behind him.

Christopher Ainslie is a much sought-after counter-tenor who had his Wigmore Hall debut just last weekend. Laurence Cummings accompanied him. Laurence is the Musical Director of the London Handel Festival and performed at Concerts in the West's opening concert last year, giving his time free in support of this West Country venture of which he is now Patron.

Christopher's plans this year include the title role in Tamerlano at the Göttingen Festival, Ottone in L'incoronazione di Poppea, a UK autumn tour to be announced shortly and the St Matthew Passion in Cape Town.

Tickets are £10 and will be available on the door or in advance from the Archway Bookshop, for which, many thanks.

Katherine Manley

Start saving, stop burning with Vauxhall's new low-CO2 Corsa

ON sale now, the new Corsa ecoFLEX is the first Vauxhall to feature Start/Stop technology, enabling the new Euro 5-compliant 1.3 CDTi (75PS) models to achieve 70.6mpg – a near 5mpg, or more than 7 per cent improvement - on the combined cycle.

Compared with the outgoing Euro 4, 1.3 CDTi (75PS) engine, the addition of Start/Stop technology and Euro 5 emissions compliance has brought a 9g/km reduction in CO2 emissions, down to 105g, as well as a 20Nm increase in torque to 190Nm. All Start/Stop cars are also fitted with a DPF (Diesel Particulate Filter), which traps harmful particulates.

The principle of Start/Stop is simple: instead of the engine idling at traffic lights or at a level crossing, the engine will automatically stop when the driver engages neutral and releases the clutch pedal. When the traffic lights turn green, the driver simply presses the clutch pedal to re-start the engine, engage first and move away. Naturally, the car's ventilation, power steering and braking system performance is maintained while the engine is temporarily off.

Drivers who use their cars frequently in town driving, where the Corsa's Start/Stop function will come in to its own, will see the biggest gains in fuel consumption. With an official urban mpg figure of 58.9mpg, the Corsa ecoFLEX 1.3 CDTi (75PS) Start/Stop is more than 12.5 per cent more economical than the outgoing Euro 4 car without the new technology.

But the package of improvements to Corsa ecoFLEX's doesn't end there. To ensure Start/Stop is reliable during the car's life, an enhanced starter motor is used, along with a high performance battery and Electric Power Management system, for efficient re-starts. An additional water pump keeps the cabin warm in cool weather during the stop phase, and owners have the ability to turn off Start/Stop completely via a dashboard button.

Drivers can even select the level of air conditioning in the cabin while the engine is temporarily turned off. Using technology unique in the industry, drivers can configure the ventilation system to remain off when the engine's in stop mode, or can pre-set the engine and air conditioning to start when the in-cabin temperature reaches a given point.

The Corsa ecoFLEX 1.3 CDTi (75PS) Start/Stop range is available in all current trims, from S to SXi, with latest prices shown below. Corsa ecoFLEX Start/Stop models add just £260 to the price of a current Euro 5 Corsa ecoFLEX 1.3 CDTi (75PS).

SHIFT...the way you move

Of Corsa it's me!

VAUXHALL'S latest advertising campaign will feature one lucky competition winner in full pop art glory on the gallery wall of the latest Pop Art inspired Corsa TV commercial.

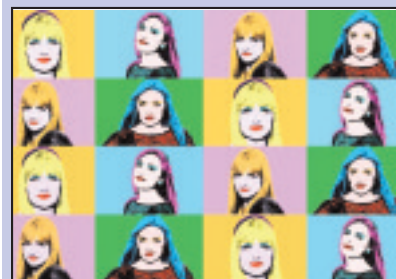

Continuing to put the fun back into driving, Vauxhall Corsa has given eighteen year old Charlotte Gunn from Southend, the chance to star in the new TV advertisement by winning the national Corsa Pop Art Idol competition which ran earlier this year on Facebook.

Aired in the UK from 19th July 2010, the new Corsa TV advertisement communicates Corsa's style credentials from a fun and fresh angle, featuring Charlotte Gunn in the kiss scene and gallery wall of the TV advertisement, which can be seen for the first time during ad breaks for Coronation Street on ITV.

Since launching in April, thousands have 'Pop Arted' their images on the Corsa Facebook Fan page. There they could Pop Art their image and drop it onto the gallery wall, post it on their own page and even pass it on to other Facebook friends and get them to Pop Art themselves too.

Five runners up each won a two foot square canvas of their Pop Arted image to display in full glory at home.

To view the making of the updated advertisement featuring the winner visit www.facebook.com/vauxhallcorsa

Take you to your destination, Yoda will

THE FORCE is strong with TomTom drivers - and it's about to get stronger. As of today, in association with Lucas Film and VoiceSkins.com, TomTom customers can be guided by the greatest Jedi Master of them all: Yoda.

Joining Darth Vader and C-3PO, Yoda is the latest official Star Wars voice to launch exclusively for TomTom devices. Han Solo will complete the line-up of fan favourites in August.

"With incredible Jedi powers, Yoda is the ideal voice to guide Star Wars fans on their journeys," says Alain Pakiry, Senior Vice President for Marketing at TomTom. "Yoda is one of voices most frequently requested by the TomTom community. So we're thrilled to launch the official Yoda voice, available only on TomTom devices."

"The TomTom brand is synonymous with high quality navigation. Star Wars fans are sure to be delighted when they hear just how great these voices sound on their TomTom navigation devices," says Casey Collins, sr. director of international licensing and marketing at Lucas Licensing.

A powerful Jedi warrior Yoda may be. But his quirky diction and mischievous personality also make him one of the most charming characters in the Star Wars universe - and one who adds a whole galaxy of fun to TomTom GPS voice commands. Incorporating dialogue inspired by the original Star Wars films, Yoda's navigation instructions include "After 700 hundred metres hmm, keep to the right then take a sharp left. Control, control, if a Jedi you wish to be."

The Yoda voice also comes with ghostly encouragement from Obi-

Wan Ben Kenobi taken from the original films and embedded into the navigation commentary. John Williams' touching 'Yoda's Theme' music is also interwoven with certain commands, providing a richness and cinematic experience rarely heard on navigation systems.

In addition to Yoda's voice, TomTom has launched a range of official Yoda wallpapers and alert sounds voiced by the Jedi Master. TomTom customers can download these items for free to ensure their TomTom device is enlisted in the service of the Jedi.

All official Star Wars voices for TomTom devices are available in English, while Yoda and Darth Vader are also now available in German. Further languages will be available throughout the summer.

NEWS FROM THE RUNNING CLUBS

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter

THERE was a fine gathering of runners for the latest round of the Woodland Relay series at Escot Park. This event was organised by Honiton RC with over 24 teams of four from AVR, Met Office, Honiton and Sidmouth RC's.

It was a flatish 1.75 mile route including a brilliant woodland trail. AVR first team of Alex Todd, Chris Keefe, Tom Hilder and Jon Blackledge fairly stormed around to win in 36:29. The Met Office was 2nd in 38:14 then AVR's 2nd string comprising Jim Jackson, Phil Bayliss, Bernard Walsh and Mark Hilder were 3rd in 39:49.

The ladies winners were the Met Office and Honiton Boys were the first Junior team. The AVR girls, Layla Felgate, Lydia Clapp, Emily Elliott and Mollie Hansford were the first junior girls team to finish in a superb 44:09. The AVR boys also ran well with Elliss Bee, William Blackledge, James Sibley and James Hansford 2nd juniors overall in a very good 43:05. Many other AVR teams took part in a very enjoyable evening's running, many thanks to Honiton RC for organising it all so well.

Luke Reed ran the second of Exeter's 5k summer series finishing 6th in 17:32. He was fairly happy with a small five second improvement from last month's race.

Eleanor Wood was the lone AVR runner that attempted the Haytor Heller 6mile race on Sunday. This is a demanding Dartmoor run, but thankfully the weather was very pleasant and a record entry of 280 runners set off over the moors at 6.30pm. Eleanor was 5th lady in, beating her previous best for this run by a full minute, coming home in 54:16, winning the 1st vet 50 prize along the way.

The Votwo kamikaze run is a totally mad event so of course there was some AVR interest. The race involves incredibly steep gradients up and down, a nice deep bog and a kamikaze slide half way round. There were 277 finishers with a very large number of DNF's.

Luke Reed was the first AVR home finishing 3rd in 1:11:39 coming away with a free bottle of wine and a shirt. Chris Keefe was very pleased to finish 9th taking 1:14:24. Both enjoyed the event a lot and would like to thank the organisers for putting it on and will certainly be back next year.

How do you spend your birthday when you are definitely the wrong side of 60? Well Dave Kelf has just given himself a spiffing birthday treat - running 28 miles along the Marriots Way long distance footpath twixt Norwich and Aylsham. At least it was flat!

HONITON RUNNING CLUB with Judy Davey

THE Tipton St John Playing Field Association in conjunction with the Women's Running Network held the Otter Valley Rail and River 10k Run on Saturday.

This is a very pleasant figure of eight course taking in the old railway line and lengthy sections beside the River Otter. Honiton runners were well represented with Tim Legg taking a podium position of 3rd in 40:45 in his first running of this race. Ceri Oak, having overtaken Steve Davey earlier in the race, was treated in a most unchivalrous fashion by Steve who pipped her to the post. Steve came 16th in 45:35 with Ceri coming one place and one second later.

It wasn't all bad for Ceri though as she also managed 3rd place podium position for the ladies. Guy Paddon was next in 23rd position in 46:36. Although it hasn't happened for over a year, it had to happen sometime and John Burgess managed to beat Judy Davey overtaking her at the 9k marker. He was 28th in 48:15 with Judy 35th in 48:52. Nick Bradley-Carter has been a frequent racer this year and came 48th in 51:19. Warren Oak found the heat got to him but came 58th in 53:18. Anne Ephraums doesn't race that often but enjoys this route and turned up again this year. She came 89th in 1:01:07.

Olivia Higginson looked like she was going to collapse as she crossed the line as she had been stung by a bee but she did well to continue and came 96th in 1:03:49. Vanessa Glyn-Jones was pleased with her run as she took about the same time as last week's Feniton run despite stopping to check that Olivia was okay. She came 98th in 1:04:17. There were about 115 runners.

There was also a 2 1/2 mile fun run for the juniors and Harry Whiteley and Katie Davey took part. Katie crossed the line as 1st girl but the leading group had taken a wrong turning and the true 1st girl was in this group. Harry Whiteley was also in this group and should have come 2nd boy overall.

It was Honiton's turn to organize the 2nd Woodland Relay of the season which took place at Escot.

A total of 25 teams of 4 runners took part and there were several comments saying that the course was one of the more enjoyable routes with it not being too hilly.

Axe Valley Runners Men's A team completed in the fastest time in 36 minutes 29 and the Met Office produced the fastest ladies' team time of 42:08. Honiton Boys' A team won the prize for the juniors coming home in exactly 42 minutes.

There were some notable performances amongst the Honiton teams with Brian Charters running under 10 minutes after coming 4th in a fell race in Wales the day before. Tim Legg also came in under 10 minutes - twice in fact as he ran the first leg for Honiton and the final leg for the Met Office. He even managed to run faster second time round.

The only other Honiton runner to achieve a sub 10 minute run was our fastest junior, Sam Urquhart who improves every time he puts on his trainers. Warren Oak was running leg three and he had a head start over his wife, Ceri, who was running the same leg. Warren was determined that Ceri would not catch him and as a result, he probably ran the fastest he has ever run before - She didn't manage to get him! Julian Gigg had the fastest sprint finish of the evening and it was uphill!

It was lovely to have several of the Race for Life trainees take part especially as the Westpoint Race for Life was the day before. They ran round at their own pace and were accompanied by other members if they wished. Welcome aboard - hopefully they didn't feel too daunted by it all and it has given them a taste to take part in other races for the Club.

Thanks to everyone involved but especially Roger Saunders for doing the lion's share of the organization.

The July Yeovilton 5k series last Wednesday was a bit windy and none of the Honiton runners managed a pb although Steve Davey was pleased to run his best time of the season and Jill Harrison came 2nd lady.

Tim Legg came 17th in 17:37, Jill 41st overall in 18:55, Tom Dunn 58th in 20:05, Steve 67th in 20:41, Roger Saunders 77th in 21:04, Judy Davey 90th in 22:04 and Claire Pomeroy 107th in 24:31.

Golf round-up

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack Seniors' Section.

AFTER the recent fine win at Torrington the Seniors came back to earth with a heavy defeat by five and a half v half away at Sidmouth on Thursday. The half point for Axe Cliff was gained by Chris Walker and Clive Davie.

Friday's Medal produced some amazing scores with Gerry Turner (11) back to his best with a 65 nett. In the final analysis he required this score to win the medal, as Mike Jamieson (26) and Roger Hill (21) both produced nett 66s with Mike claiming second place and Roger third.

The Main club played this Sunday for the Sander Stevens with the difficult format of Par/Bogey. Despite the format the scores were fantastic. First was Chris Glover with a plus six and a better bag nine than Dave Morgan also with a plus six. Third place sent to Trevor Park with plus five.

Last Saturday in glorious weather the Ladies and the Main Club competed for the dubious honour of the Wooden Spoon. The Ladies won five and three so the Wooden Spoon now sports a blue ribbon.

This Wednesday on a very blowy morning the Ladies played for their Par/Bogey and the winner with a plus four was Chris Drewe, whose handicap will now be cut.

HONITON with Andy Wagner Captains Day

IT was the Captain's big day, the centrepiece of his year. This was a day for the Captain to connect with the members, treat them all to a free round of golf with a table full of prizes to record the winners.

There was even a celebratory drink on him laid on in the Clubhouse afterwards. Such generosity and he'd even organised for perfect playing conditions too, bright sunshine with a cooling breeze. No tormenting 'St Andrews' tornadoes here to wreak havoc with the members cards. Whatever your tee off time the course was beautifully, attractively benign, which in no way accounts for my 8, 10, 8 finish!

Captain John Stabbs organisational abilities are a credit to his term of office and as far as the members were aware the day ran like clockwork. Each tee time was hit on the button and with the help of Vice Captain Tim Avery the cards were collated and in order for the 6.30 prize giving. No easy task as John was awarding prizes in every category imaginable.

Men's and ladies nearest the pins, Seniors, Juniors, Ladies, you name it and John provided mementos. He even handed commemorative stamped golf balls to all those who had entered for the days fun which will be cropping up in the most unusual corners of the course in the fullness of time I have no doubt.

So who were the lucky winners who rose from those luckier competitors? Played as a full handicap medal the Seniors Prize went to Fred Thomas with a 67. The Junior Prize was won by Dan Noar with a 69 and the Ladies prize over 10 holes went to Catherine Doherty with 23pts.

The Division three winner was Mark Parkinson with 71. Division two went to John Chew's 64 with Mark Tierney's 68 taking Division one. The Jim Loosemore Trophy for the longest drive was won by Stuart Selway leaving the Captains Prize and Old Calabar Trophy going to John Chew's 64 being the best score of the day.

This magnificent event was rounded off with a celebratory dinner, served in the clubhouse. Congratulations to Captain John Stabb and all those who assisted him on his day.

Mixed Open.

THE Mixed Open Greensomes on Sunday was a great success. Over 180 players from 34 different clubs took part. The prize table organised by Lady Vice-Captain Sue Ritchie displayed a red and white theme which received many compliments. Club Captain John Stabb presented the prizes assisted by Lady Captain Elizabeth Ward.

The winners with 47 pts were home pairing of Julie Eyles and Paul Hill. 2nd - 46 pts. D Parnell and J Veale from Elfordleigh. 3rd - 44 pts on c/b D Wills and W Sellick from Yelverton. 4th also 44 pts losing on c/b Gerda Brown and Mark Gillard home members. Prizes were presented to 8th place with Nearest the Pin Lady - D Parsons from Crediton. Men - Simon Thomas from Mullion. Longest drive Lady - H Milne from Wareham and Men - Terry Dimond. 12 2s were recorded.

Tuesday Mixed

DUE to the weather closing in the competition was over 14 holes. Format this week Rye Foursomes.

The winning pair with the excellent score of 35 pts were Sheila Banks and Paul Witton. 2nd place Jane Watts and Paul Ritchie - 33 pts. 3rd - 32 pts on c/b Dot Grove and Alec Gosling. 4th losing out on c/b Jennifer Pyle and John Weedon.

Ladies 3 Ball Team Open

WITH fingers crossed, especially by Ladies Secretary Jackie Seager who had organised the day that the early morning fog would lift, which it duly did, the Ladies 3 Ball Team Open - Medal Play 2 scores to count took place on Wednesday.

A full field with ladies from 27 different clubs experienced various weather conditions. Many compliments were received for the course and the catering but also the Lady Captain Elizabeth Wards prize table. Always "themed" Elizabeth had chosen Butterflies for this Open.

The winners were home team of Henrietta Bradshaw, Barbara Mullett and Tricia Swindell with 137. 2nd place also from Honiton were Jean Putt, Olwen Eaton and Mabs Baker with 139. 3rd place from Weston Super Mare Sally Irlam, Glenda Latham and June Phillips with 141 on c/b. 4th from Saunton losing out on c/b were Catherine Davey, Chris Gummerson and Sue Grinstead.

Prizes were presented down to 7th place. Nearest the Pin was won by Vi Gray from Taunton and Pickering. Nearest the "line" was Chris Burrows from Cheddington.

Senior Section

SEVENTY ONE Honiton Seniors played in blustery and showery conditions to compete in two divisions for the July Monthly Medal.

Although the showers came and went with quite a speed, they were nevertheless pretty violent and the downpours were heavy. The waterproofs were on and off and the umbrellas up and down frequently.

Clearly the conditions affected the standard of play for most of the competitors but the winners of both First and Second Division's completed very creditable rounds.

In Division two only one shot separated all four players from second to fifth and count back was needed to identify fifth placed Malcolm Matthews from fourth placed Derek Herrington, both on net 74 and also between third placed Norman Ede and second placed Bob Underwood, both net 73. The winner enjoyed plenty of separation from his Division two peers as Ron Rogers scored a net 67.

In Division one the scores were more spread with fifth placed Brian Elkington on 74, fourth placed John Discombe on 73, third placed Stan Squire on 72 and John Gillingham second with 68.

The overall winner of Division one and the July Monthly Medal Tankard was Jim Wallis on a commendable net 64.

Cricket round-up

HONITON KNOCK OVER SAINTS FOR JUST 21!

AXMINSTER CRICKET CLUB

with Phil Spong

1st XI

AXMINSTER Captain Paul Miller continued to demonstrate his faith in the batting strength by his decision to again bat first.

It seemed a surprise decision considering the damp wicket, and with the loss of five wickets for 59, the innings looked in some trouble. But a stand of 33 between David Murnane (32) and Ryan Walker (27) began to right the ship but it was fine innings from Ben Fuzzard (41 not out) with support from the lower order that took the total to some respectability.

The visitors innings was in early trouble with the loss of Chris Ferro with the score at 8 but Chave and Andrew seemed in little trouble in a partnership of 55. Robbie Prior removed then Andrew and once Alex Rockett had had Chave (51) well caught by Danny Larcombe, from not the best delivery he is ever likely to bowl, wickets fell steadily.

A hard-hit 28 from Mark Couch then took the score to 152 and a possible win but Nick Taylor returned to the attack and bowled both the number eight and his partner Cook. The home side were, however frustrated by the last pair and were unable to force the victory and had to settle for the winning draw and 14 points.

2nd XI

AWAY at Clyst the Axminster second string batted well enough to get past the 200 mark. The bulk of the runs came from two 16-year-olds with Matthew Pile (97) and well struck 33 from Paddy Barraclough.

Unfortunately the total of 216 proved of little difficulty to the home side who passed the total with 14 overs to spare with opening bat Welsh also getting into the 90s. Matthew Pile was the most successful of the Axminster bowlers with 2-22 in his 6 overs.

3rd XI

IN their previous meeting of these two sides the Exeter 3rds amassed 217-4 but the Axminster bowlers turned that around and bowled them out for 135 at Cloakham.

Only Choudary (53) was up to the task as the home side bowlers took control. It was 14 year old leg spinner Sam Farrow (2-20) who finally removed Choudary but Josh Singleton 2-30, Mike Summers 2-39 and David Hayball 3-40 never allowed the visitors any freedom.

The Axminster reply got off to a bad start with the loss of a wicket without a run on the board but then Sean Perry, 96 not out and (yet again) Steve Wakeley, 30 not out batted with plenty of freedom to see the 3rds home inside 20 overs.

The club will be looking for the team to gain a few more such results in the latter part of the season.

4th XI

A LONG trip to North Devon saw the side chasing a total of 226 but some pleasure in watching youngster Joshua Short make his first half-century for the club. His 53 helped the side hang on for a draw at 115-9.

AXMINSTER LADIES

with Emily Broad

HATHERLEIGH Ladies 90 all out lost to Axminster Ladies 112 for 9

Axminster travelled to Hatherleigh knowing that they had to win this game to keep themselves in contention for the league title.

Having lost the toss and put in to bat they found the going tough on a damp wicket but Hannah Singleton and Kes Wakeley got Axminster off to a good start, but this was not to last and top scorer Hannah was bowled for 16.

No one batsman hit big for Axminster but they all chipped-in and finished on 112 for 9. Then came their best fielding performance this season. Hatherleigh looked comfortable as the target looking within reach. Singleton then made a superb run out with a direct hit from a great distance. This signalled a change in fortunes and the game started to go Axminster's way as the wickets began to tumble. Three more excellent run out's and a fine bowling display from Lorraine Szczepanski (3 for 12) saw the hosts bowled out for 90 and rounded off a great team performance.

HONITON with Andrew Lapping
HONITON 1st XI entertained Newton St Cyres at Mountbatten Park hoping to maintain their top of the league position.

Winning the toss the skipper put Newton into bat. From the start Adam Holmes and Phil Tansley had the batsman in trouble with wickets falling regularly. Tansley was in fantastic form swinging the ball and Newton could not play him. Ian Drew turned up half an hour late and by then Newton were seven down and he fielded for two overs before it was all over.

Newton were all out for 21 in 18.5 overs with Tansley finishing with nine overs bowled taking 7 wickets for 4 runs. Holmes and Kev Kelly had a wicket each.

Honiton knocked off the runs inside four overs for the loss of 1 wicket. Brad Groves was 13 not out and Pete Matravers 4 not out.

Honiton took the full 20 points and now lead Kenn by 10 points with 6 games to go.

Honiton travel to Kenn next week in what should be an excellent top of the table clash.

Honiton 2nd XI vs Clyst Hydon 2nd XI

Honiton 2nd XI faced a challenging away fixture at second placed Clyst Hydon on an extremely flat looking pitch and a fast outfield. After the previous week's misery, HCC were grateful for the return of the reassuring class and wisdom of Gandalf Beighton and Ian Kelly, the thinking man's amoeba.

With Clyst taking first use of the track, Honiton opened the bowling with Craig Lapping and Andy Brinsford. Brinsford extracted a surprising amount of seam movement from the remnants of some early dampness to clean bowl Garnham in his first over. The second pair dug in and took the score to 41-1 before Lapping found the outside edge to have O'Connell taken by Abu Travers at backward point.

During this period, and for the rest of the innings Honiton displayed a commendable Corinthian spirit, giving most batsmen at least one life by randomly spilling multitudes of catches. The wave of Teflon sponsorship reached epidemic proportions, affecting the most reliable and competent players as well as Potter.

Despite the unhelpful buttered fingery, Brinsford continued his exemplary bowling display by having Wood caught behind by Vuvu Strawbridge and followed up by gaining an LBW decision against Hodgkin to make it 50-4.

Canniford added to Clyst's woes by bowling Fitt with a full, straight and devastating toe crusher, putting the home side deep in trouble at 56-5.

With half the side and half the overs gone, on a track which demanded a minimum of 220 the lower order began to chance their arm and hit out. This they did effectively, with the drying pitch playing better and better, although wickets continued to fall at regular intervals.

Hill surprised Morgan with one which kept a tad low and Hartnoll bowled the big hitting Martin for 49. At 135-8 Canniford held on to an over ambitious miscue at long on to see off Holmes, but the tail continued to wag effectively, finally being polished off by Hartnoll who finished with 3-33. Brinsford's 13-1-32-3 was the main reason behind Clyst's below par 169 and Honiton were licking their lips at the prospect of the victory there for the taking.

Strawbridge and the ever youthful Beighton made things look deceptively simple as the Honiton reply made a comfortable start, despite some testing pace bowling. Strawbridge reached the boundary with several clonking straight hits, while Beighton turned singles into threes with his lightning running between the wickets.

At 54-0 Beighton (15), well down the pitch, was adjudged LBW rather harshly, to bring in Canniford. Together with Strawbridge, he took the total to 79 before Strawbridge departed for an excellent 49.

This lead to a collapse with the scoreboard limping along to 97-7. Craig Lapping did his best to steady the ship, but when he departed for 15.

Kelly hung around and made a useful 10 as Honiton finished up on an abject 122 all out, Dowell taking 6-23.

U10 Softball Pairs

Ottery St Mary A v Whimble

AFTER the frustration of a couple of postponed matches OSM A finally got to play their first home game of the season against Whimble.

Home captain for the day Cameron Derry won the toss and decided to bat first. Brothers Will and Jonathan Pitcher opened the batting and put on 35 runs without losing a wicket. Dominic Harrower and Andrew Mortimer then all but matched the openers' score, Charlie Olive and Edmund Hayman, kept the runs flowing with good running and excellent communication.

Derry and George Mutter completed the innings with some well-judged runs but Whimble showed great character in continuing to battle and were rewarded with a further two wickets.

If Ottery had batted well then their bowling and fielding was even more impressive keeping a tight grip on the Whimble batsmen and restrict their scoring all through the innings.

The final result was a comfortable win for Ottery.

Following their positive result against Whimble the previous week, Ottery A found their opposition away at Bradninch a very different challenge with a high bouncing ball proving difficult to master.

Batting first, too many wickets were lost to catches off aerial shots. Early wickets for Ottery kept the Bradninch batsmen in check for a while but solid batting in the middle/late order saw them ease steadily away to a comfortable win.

Ottery B U10s v Ottery A U10s

14th July
THESE two teams of clubmates played a tightly contested match on a cloudy evening at Salston Field, with Ottery B eventually running out winners.

Ottery B batted first and posted a total of 294 Tom Jeacock top-scoring with 30. Andrew Mortimer was the pick of the Ottery A bowlers picking up two wickets.

Ottery As reply started well with Charlie Olive in particularly fine form hitting five 4s and a 6. However some mediocre running between the wickets and some fine fielding from Ottery B lead to eight run outs with Ottery A finishing on 260.

Ottery B U10s v Whimble U10s

18th July
SOME excellent bowling and fine catching saw Ottery B restrict Whimble to 227 with Will Bugler, Ben Marsh and Ben Cathcart holding excellent catches. Ottery B scored 301 in reply, with Tom Peters cracking four 4s in an excellent opening partnership of 35 with Tom Simmons.

Bowls round-up

FENITON FIRST IN FOUNDATION TROPHY

AXMINSTER with David Harris

SINCE my last report Axminster have enjoyed a series of mainly very close encounters, winning six of the ten matches played.

The Ladies started with a convincing home win over South Petherton (76-18) with Barbara Mowatt, Ann Clayton, and Joyce Copp 43-10 winning well, but then lost at home to Seaton (38-64) with our best effort coming from Joan Quick, Ann Clayton, and Joyce Copp who managed a 22-22 draw.

They followed this with a narrow home victory over Lyme Regis (56-49) with a best rink of Phil Bolwell, Ann Clayton, and Joyce Copp (21-11).

In the Devon Over 60s League the men lost at North Tawton (28-39) despite the great efforts of William Cook, Graham

We then lost an excellent match at Bridport (61-68) with William Cook, Chris Hobbs, Roger Legg, and Pam Clark our best rink (23-20), before going down by just two shots at Donyatt in a triples match with Ken Quick, Frank Lintott, and Margaret Crompton winning well (20-12).

Finally, in another excellent match we beat Dunkeswell at home (82-77) with Phil Bolwell, Mike Preston, David Harris, and Sheila Martin (20-14) our top rink.

CHARDSTOCK

A FOUR mixed Triples match away to Charmouth on Tuesday 15th July resulted in a three rink to one and an overall win by 76-52 shots which was a good return to form for Chardstock. T Bird, P

Vickers, M Sturley, K Wakelin lost 19-29, A Callagan, G Bodily, A Day, M Davenport won 25-12, Mrs M Davenport, J Vickers, J Rolph, N Denslow won 39-7, B Albon, R Wines, J Tucker, B Sluman won 33-12.

FENITON with Roger Smith

THE week started with a narrow victory for the mixed team against visitors Dunkeswell by 64-62. The winning rinks were Norma Cox, Ted Goodenough, Roger Clarke 16-13, Robin Cooke, Ruth Clarke, Eileen Tuck and Les Ley 23-10. Later in the week the mixed team had an excellent result away at Exonia winning by 83-61. The winning rinks were Frank Jones, John Livings, Lyn Eveleigh and Avril Coyne 29-14, Gill Smith, Eddie Cox, Martyn Eveleigh and Christine Granger 24-11 and Glynda Blackmore, Bob Crowe-Swords, Alan Smith and Tony Kury 18-14.

The over 60s Mens B team shared the points away at Tiverton West End, the match being a tie 33-33. The winning rink was Colin Cheesley, George Skinner and Don Conbeer 20-17.

The A team's match at Exonia fell victim to a cloud burst with the scores at 8-3 on one rink and 5-6 on the other. The match will be continued at a later date.

On Sunday, Feniton held its annual Foundation Trophy competition, six local clubs being invited to compete. This year's winners were (Feniton) Don Conbeer, Dot Chipperfield, Ruby Veitch and Tony Kury with a score of +18 and the runners up were (Feniton) Colin Cheesley, Judy Smith, George Skinner and Lyn Eveleigh +10.

SEATON with Edward Harden

IN the Two Counties league Seaton beat Culm Vale on 11 July but drew against Hemoyock on July 12th.

The shot score was 69 to 69. Top Seaton rink was Alan Prichard, Keith Miles, Peter Greenwood and Les Tooze. We beat Budleigh Salterton C on 14 July by 51 shots to 21.

Top rink was Alan Wood, Roy Carnell and Roger Woolland. In the friendly games our ladies triples team beat Chardstock ladies on 13 July by 48 shots to 39. Top triple was Alice Carter, Barbara Harden and Joan Miles. On the same day we won a four mixed triples game against Phear Park by 69 shots to 46. Top triple was Olive Blundell, Susan Banwell-Moore and Angie Mayhew. On 14 July we entertained Southall and District Bowling Association, a touring side, but lost by 106 shots to 125. Top Seaton equal rinks were Gillian Sykes, Frank Brown, Gerry Barry, Marian Vessey and Ian Manchester, Betty Steer, Bob Scull and Ted Talbot.

On Thursday, July 15th a five mixed triples game against Chard resulted in a win for Seaton by 92 shots to 77. Top triple was Lin Allison, Ron Russell and Rhonda Follenfant.

In our annual Price Cup match, traditionally a needle match of our ladies against the men ended in the ladies losing by 71 shots to 84. Top ladies rink was Linda Stone, Sheila Pike, Shirley Fewtrell and Sue Rutter. Top men's rink was David Yardley, Ken Russell, Ron Rowley and Phil Crichard.

In a four rink match on July 17th against Dorset Bowling Association we lost by 67 shots to 85. Top rink was John Packham, David Yardley, Shirley Parkhouse and Joan Miles.

We were delighted to welcome the English Bowling Umpires Association as our guests on 18 July as part of our Centenary Year celebrations. This Association play all their games for charity and over the years have raised many thousands of pounds and at Seaton raised over £70.

In the County fours competition played on 17 July Seaton bowlers Ron Rowley, Roy Carnell, Bob Rutter and Phil Crichard, after facing tough opposition in earlier rounds, won through to the semi-final. Despite losing in the semi-final to a team from Shalford Phil and his team are to be congratulated on their fine achievement.

No competitive matches for us this week only friendlies and the over 60s league games.

Thursday we went to Ottery St Mary and managed two winning and two losing rinks and winning overall.

Our top rink was Jenny Wilde, Roger Willcocks, Maureen Parsons and Dulcie Broughton at 36-9.

Friday the ladies went to Budleigh and also won. Top four that day was Jean Mitchell, Maureen Parsons, Pearl Hackwood and Rita Barwick.

Saturday we were visited by Belmont from Exeter and won by 67-55. Our top Triple was Liam Crawford, Roger Willcocks and Thelma Flynn at 24-14.

Sunday saw a side from Donyatt visiting and we had an overall win of 83-57. Our top triple was Arthur Dimond, Berry Maynard and Mike Sellick with a good 30-9 win.

The Over 60's league was very disappointing. The C side lost away to Axminster on both rinks. We can have some sympathy because it is very difficult to adjust to playing on the Axminster Outdoor Carpet.

The 'B' side had two matches this week. Wednesday at home to Starcross. When playing the first leg away we lost on both rinks, so there was some recompense when Ken Morfey, Tony Broughton and Mike Critchley had a good 27-9 win with the other rink of Peter Baker, Chris Maynard and Ken Clarke losing by only three. This gave us six valuable points.

Then on Friday they played again against League leaders Hemoyock at Honiton this time losing heavily on both rinks. Hemoyock showed why they are league leaders with a fine display of bowls. They have previously won Division six in 2007, Division five in 2008 and were runners-up in Division four in 2009. They now look almost certain to go up to Division two in 2011, that is a considerable achievement.

The C sides match against Okehampton was abandoned after the trial ends because of rain.

There were only seventeen of the scheduled 35 matches played in the league this week, eighteen cancelled or abandoned through the bad weather.

◆ WINNERS: Tony Kury, Ruby Veitch, Dot Chipperfield, Don Conbeer, Club President Glenys North with their awards at Feniton Bowls club.

Ayres, and Bob Sherborne- 18 to 12 winners, but came back well to beat Honiton at home (37-23) with both rinks winning, the best of which was Les Monk, Derek Eldridge, and Bob Sherborne (21-11).

In the mixed friendlies we started by beating Crediton at home by seven shots (no scorecards available!) and then beat Feniton at home (79-72) with a top rink of Phil White (who excelled in her first match for the Club), William Cook, Frank Bridge and Margaret Crompton (21-15).

Bowden, M Toms lost 13-17, R Wines, K Wakelin, B Sluman won 17-16, B Howard, G Bodily, N Denslow won 18-8, P Potter, K Warren, J Tucker won 28-11.

On Saturday 17th July the visitors were Wellington in a 4 rink mixed match. This game saw two new members for Chardstock playing in their first match, and some high scores including one rink scoring 8 shots on one end. Chardstock won the match by three rinks to one and an overall score of 116 to 60. T Bird, B

VICTORY OVER KNIGHTS

LYME REGIS GOLF CLUB

with Steve Percival

HAVING been awarded a bye in the first round, the Lyme A team were anxious to perform well in their first match in the Oke Salver scratch competition against Knighton Heath.

However, Captain Roger Seed also wanted to take the opportunity to "blood" some of the up and coming young players of the club in his eighth man team.

Played at home in excellent conditions with the firm fairways continuing to add length to drives and with the greens running quick and true, scores were anticipated to be good throughout what proved to be a highly competitive match.

The morning format was foursomes, where each of the two players in the team take turns at the shots, Lyme ran out convincing victors by four matches to nil.

However, the afternoon singles proved to be a nailbiting contest. Ian Mudford concluded an excellent 2-1 victory over his opponent whilst Roger Seed convincingly overcame his by an overwhelming 5-4.

Scott Love went into the final hole one down but managed to salvage a half with an excellent bidie on the eighteenth green.

Similarly Ed Lawrence kept his head to also record a half. Although the remaining matches were lost, Lyme managed to achieve an overall match win by 7 - 5.

The Lyme team of; Roger Seed, Ian Mudford, Matt Searle, Scott Love, Richie Yorke, Tom Glover, Greg Matthews, and Ed Lawrence now wait with anticipation to hear who their opponents will be in the quarter final.

Windwhistle Golf STONE LANDS SCRATCH CUP

with Pete Hamilton-Walsh

THE weekend saw the annual "Club Championship" take place at the Windwhistle.

The event takes place over the two days and the "Handicap Shield" and "Scratch Cup" are both up for grabs.

With a larger than usual entry due to the increasing popularity of the event winning was going to be gained by two very good rounds of golf.

The winner of the "Scratch Cup" was John Stone with a combined score of 154, he also has the accolade of "Club Champion" 2010. Second place fell to Neil Wilmington who also scored a card of 154 but lost out to count-back but he did win the "Handicap Shield".

Both players' names will be entered onto the honours boards. Club Captain Andy King would like to extend his gratitude to all those involved in and taking part in the weekend.

OFFWELL: OFFWELL returned to training last week and all players, old or new, are welcome to join in.

The sessions take place on Tuesdays and Thursdays at the pitch 6.30pm start. Anyone interested and needing more information can contact first team manager Nick Ogden on 07868307206.

Ogden said: "We have two teams, one in the Devon & Exeter League division three and the other in division eight. We are looking to build on last year's success, so new players are welcome to our friendly group".

He also had a special mention of thanks to give to Nigel Doe (ex-Honiton manager) who very generously donated a significant number of balls to the club. He added: "Like most clubs we are always looking for sponsorship to afford the necessities so Nigel's donation was gratefully received".

COLYTON: Colyton 1

Exeter City U18 6
COLYTON FC started their centenary season with a mouthwatering fixture vs. a Exeter City Under 18 side boosted by the inclusion of 7 1st year professionals.

A beautiful sunny morning saw a large crowd witness a very enjoyable match. The players took to the outstanding playing surface which had been prepared to perfection by Groundsman Phil Richards and his team. Exeter started brightly and pushed Colyton onto the back foot from the opening minute.

Keeper Kris Reed had to be at his best to made two very early saves but could do nothing to prevent City taking a well deserved lead on 10 minutes, five minutes later a second was added. Colyton hung on bravely but very poor defending from a corner saw the Grecians extend their lead. On the half hour another poor piece of defending saw City open up a 4-0 lead.

Coly dug deep into their reserves and from the restart they started to push the ball around with confidence. Several flowing moves saw Coly take the upper hand.

The standard of play was excellent and Colyton showed the appreciative crowd that they were back in the game. A flowing move saw Reed feed the ball to left-back, and Coly's Man-of-the-match, Mike Cullum. A great surging run saw Cullum link up with three team mates before a return pass inside the area resulted in Cullum slotting the ball into the bottom corner past a well beaten City keeper.

The second-half saw Colyton change tactics leaving the hard working Calum Somers as a lone striker with a five strong midfield. The ploy worked and Colyton restricted City to two more goals.

In the dying minutes Coly were almost rewarded with a second goal after fine work by Midfielder Ben Vine saw him release Somers who turned sharply on the edge of the area before unleashing a shot which the City keeper just managed to fingertip around the post.

City were full of praise after the game remarking on Colyton's standard of play and facilities. Another tough opponent for next Saturday's friendly as Alphington are the visitors to the Peace Memorial ground with a 3pm kick off.

New assistant first team manager, Mark Watkins has been really impressed with the large turnout and level of commitment of all the players.

Training continues every Tuesday and Thursday, meet at the ground 6.30pm. New players are more than welcome.

◆ NAP-HAND: Feniton first XI bowler John Pyle returned figures of 5 for 18 as Feniton thrashed Uplyme & Lyme Regis by nine wickets at Chardstock on Saturday.

HISTORIC FIRST VICTORY FOR OTTER BREWERY CRICKETERS

ON a beautiful summers evening at Newton Poppleford, the Otters openers got off to a solid start with a partnership of 31.

A quickfire 13 from Burgess and a unfinished 14-run partnership of 14 between Smith and Jones saw the Otters total 110 with extras top-scoring with 21. Top scorer was extras with 21

With only 110 to defend, a tight bowling performance was needed.

An unbeaten 25 from M.Hill gave Newton Poppleford some hope but Burgess' 3 for 12 off his two overs saw the visitors home to their first ever victory.

Competitors will race over the 2.6 miles course for around an hour before starting the next phase of the challenge, a 112 mile bike race which will take around seven hours.

The third part of the race is a full 26.2 mile marathon.

If Kevin, who is the captain of East Devon's 'N1 Triathlon Club' and will be cheered on by many of his club mates who are travelling to Switzerland to cheer him here on, completes in a reasonable time he will get the chance to enter the World Championships in Hawaii.

Whilst Kevin represents the very peak of the sport he is very keen to encourage newcomers to get involved in one of the UK's fastest growing sports.

If you would like to enjoy the benefits of a fitness regime that offers variety coupled with a great team spirit then maybe you should visit the N1 Triathlon club website on www.n1triathlon.co.uk
